Spracht Introduces the Aura Video Mate All-in-One Video Conferencing Camera, Mic and Speakerphone

An All-In-One Low Cost Solution for Huddle Rooms, Conference Rooms, Home office and Small Office - BE HEARD & SEEN!

Palo Alto, CA – Spracht, designer/producer of communication peripherals, announces a full new Video Conference Solution with the Aura Video Mate.™ The Video Mate is a USB Based Conferencing Speaker to give the user full HD Video and Audio in a simple Plug and Play solution that works across all of the popular Video Conferencing Applications. With 1080p HD Video and a 120 degree wide angle camera, this little unit can fill up a conference room or huddle room and then be taken home or on the road to a hotel or home office.

“Spracht has always made good conference phones and conferencing peripherals acoustically. But this is our first foray into the Video Conferencing market and we’re very excited about this product. With all of the popular Video Conferencing Applications like SKYPE, Bluejean, Slack, Zoom, Skype Business, etc., it is good to have a plug and play product that can work across these platforms with no hassle.”– says Gary Crock, VP Sales & Marketing for Spracht. “This also is a unique product in that it is an All-In-One, Affordable ($399 MSRP) solution in comparison to the large Video Conference Solutions. But it gives very good Audio and Video quality that can fill up a conference room – if you are calling in from the road, you probably won’t notice the difference.”

The Video Mate is an all-in-one solution that can easily be taken on the road with its small lightweight design. It also can be taken around the office from Conference Room, to Huddle Room, to the small office. A robust USB 2.0 micro cable, plus a cable extender is included which allows up to 10 feet of range for secure connections to laptops, desktops or PC’s. The Video Mate is also full-duplex with echo cancellation and noise reduction with a built-in omni-directional 360 degree microphone. BE HEARD and BE SEEN!

The Aura Video Mate™ is now available for purchase at www.spracht.com and many of the leading online resellers.
