Spracht Introduces the Aura Professional Conference Phone

PSTN Expandable version with 6 mics in Total in order to BE HEARD!

Palo Alto, CA – Spracht, designer/producer of wireless speakers and conference phones, announces their newest product in the Spracht Conference Phone product line, the Aura Professional™ Desktop Conference Phone. The Aura Professional™ is a Full-Duplex, Plug-and-Play conference phone with 6 Microphones in total so you are heard clearly and loudly on the far end.

“The Aura PRO™ has a Sophisticated Design and is very aggressively priced. This phone also has 4 internal Mics and 2 external, so if necessary, it can be used for the largest conference rooms. It’s also Plug-and-Play and is a very pragmatic option if you need a high-end conference phone” says Gary Crock, VP Sales & Marketing for Spracht. “Spracht now has a wide array of Conference Phones and Portable Conference Devices and are looking to further expand our range – it’s an exciting time for us.”

The Aura Professional™ Desktop Conference Phone comes with everything you need for clear and loud full-duplex conversations. It also comes with an LCD screen with Caller ID and a twenty number storage phone book. The product has wide compatibility with most PBX systems by using the Analog PBX port and has a sleek, 4 legged design. This is a great product for businesses who need a high-end conference phone without the hefty price tag.

The Aura Professional™ comes equipped with 4 internal mics, 2 external mics, Cables, AC power adaptor, Connectors, and manual. The Aura Professional™ will retail for $399.99 and is available for purchase at www.spracht.com and many of the leading online resellers.
